MERKAZ HATORAH COMMUNITY KOLLEL was established in the summer of 2007 (Elul 5767), by the Rosh Kollel, Rabbi Boruch Yehudah Gradon. Today there are eleven full time Avreichim under the guidance of the Rosh Chaburah, Rabbi Daniel Danishefsky.

Situated in the heart of the Pico-Robertson neighborhood in Los Angeles, the Kollel provides a full-time Torah learning experience for the Avreichim, offering the opportunity to develop into accomplished Torah scholars.

The Kollel also serves as a vital Makom Torah for the community; a place where people feel comfortable to come in and join a Shiur, learn B'Chavrusa with one of our Fellows or simply sit and learn by themselves and benefit from the Torah inspired atmosphere.

The Kollel has developed the remarkable Merkaz Habayis learning network with a steady program of shiurim, geared to inspiring the full spectrum of ladies in our community.

With the relocation to its new home, the Kollel has seen much Beracha along with many great developments.

Now, we embark on a project to build a Torah center that will allow us to take our Kollel project to the next level.

For thirteen years the Kollel was housed in the Beth Jacob Synagogue. Those years were a wonderful time for the Kollel's development and displayed the special magnanimity of the Beth Jacob community. The Kollel had the privilege of acquiring the CHASE bank building on the corner of Pico and Doheny.
